

Julian Kutrzeba

Born in 1961. Education: 5th Secondary School of General Education, Jagiellonian University,

Founder and shareholder of a number of successful companies in the IT/Media/Telecommunications sector in the Polish market, including:

- DRQ - developer of software for the telecommunications, media and finance sectors
- MocoHub - provider and integrator of multimedia mobile content
- Xylab - manufacturer of telecommunications equipment
- Edison - national EDI operator /GE licence/
- Artlumino - developer of mobile applications
- WorkForce24 - consulting /Kronos licence/

Projects conducted, among others:

- Hydroquebec Canada, management of the installation of more than 1000 automatic hydrometeorological stations and a data acquisition system
- ITI /TVN/, design and comprehensive servicing of an SMS system for interacting with the audience
- Scanned Group, supervision over the design and construction of the St. Raphael Hospital in Kraków
- PGE, Management Board Representative for the implementation of a recovery programme in the creation of an IT shared services centre for the entire group
- Qumak, consultant on rebranding, organisation of the marketing department and strategy development
- Albatros - implementation of a buy-back process and supervision of the sale of a subsidiary to SODEXO
- Próchnik – attempt to save the company
- Ministry of Digital Affairs - development of IT criteria for subsidised government projects / implementation of a vendor lock-in prohibition and priority for Open Source, SaaS and automated testing
- Business consultancy as part of sole proprietorship

Married, two children.

Non-professional interests: skiing, trekking, travel and photography.