

Mr. Szczepan Strublewski graduated from the Main School of Planning and Statistics (now the Warsaw School of Economics) in Warsaw and obtained a University Diploma at The University of Kent in Canterbury.

He began his career as a consultant at EVIP International in Warsaw (1991-92). From 1992 to 1993, he was a consultant at Arthur Andersen in the Audit Department. From 1993-1996, he worked at SBC Warburg in the Financial Advisory Department in Warsaw, and then at SBC Warburg in the European Companies Analysis Department in London (1996-1997), being responsible for the analysis of companies listed on the Polish market. In 1997-1998, he worked at ING Barings in Warsaw, where he served as deputy director of the Capital Markets and Mergers and Acquisitions Department. From 1998 to 2002 he was deputy director at Dresdner Kleinwort Wasserstein in London in the Mergers and Acquisitions Department. From 2003 to 2005, he worked as an independent consultant on M&A transactions and raising financing. From January 2006 until September 2008, he served as president and managing director of ABN AMRO Corporate Finance (Poland) Spółka z o.o.. Since 2008, he served as a partner at Warsaw Equity Advisors. Since 2011, he has acted as an independent advisor on M&A transactions and corporate restructuring.

Mr. Szczepan Strublewski also worked for many years as a member of the supervisory boards of companies listed on the Warsaw Stock Exchange, including Computerland S.A., Sygnity S.A. and Grupa Kęty S.A.